

man who lasted 20 rounds against Jack Johnson, world's champion, and made a good showing.

Leon has agreed to fight 10 rounds with the "smoke" for an even division of the money.

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Coroner's physicians today testified that body of 5-year-old Nellie Goethler, who, it is charged, was beaten and tortured until she died, was mass of bruised and broken flesh. William Goethler and Mrs. Regina Schiller, with whom he lived, are charged with the murder of the child.

Herman Potthoff, expert accountant for the Hammond Packing Co., testified about test cost, profit margins and general methods of figuring expenses in packers' trial today.

Henry Rosenbaum, sheet metal worker, fell from roof of three-story building at Astor and Banks streets today and was instantly killed.

Charles H. Roys, mail collector found dead in gas-filled room in his home, 39322 N. Harding ave., early today.

Jimmy Doyle, Cub third baseman, operated on yesterday at Syracuse, N. Y., for appendicitis, is in critical condition today.

Managers of the Magill senatorial boom today filed a protest against the petition of Senator Cullom, alleging the petition was accepted by a clerk in the secretary's office, who refused to take the Magill paper.

Speaking of newspapers and the Hearst organs of public opinion, Col. Henry Watterson declares Gov. Wilson was afraid to submit their word war to a jury of "democrats and gentlemen."

Mrs. J. A. Kimball of Taylorville, was today granted an Illinois chauffeurs' license. Second woman to secure such a license.

Gov. Deneen today issued requisition for return of James Larson, alias Adolph Larson, under arrest in Wautoma, Wis., and wanted here on horse stealing charge.

John Ryan, 2009 Wabash ave., and William Lane, 1230 Wabash, arrested after chase through loop, charged with raiding restaurant at 70 W. Harrison street and holding up Albert Gardenberg, night manager. Several shots fired during pursuit.

Council passed Southern Trac-tion ordinance, which carries with it 5-cent fare downtown to residents as far south as 111th street.

"The Playboy of the Western World," egged off the stage in Philadelphia, may not be allowed to appear in Chicago. The council last night declared against it, and final action is up to the mayor.

With the high price of eggs here, the show ought to be immune from the Philadelphia treatment.

"Live with them, lie to them and love them." Philosophy of William H. Thompson-Drummond, arrested on charge of big-